ANCHORS AWEIGH
SEPTEMBER EIGHT

Second Annual Cruise
To Be Enlivened By Famous Jazzmen

From beneath Founders Bridge on the Connecticut River at noon on Sunday, September 8 will sail a riverboat packed with jazz talent, members of the Hartford Jazz Society and anybody else who can enjoy music, scenery, good fellowship and a good time.

Present on the boat will be the Oliver Jackson Trio, which rocked the Society in a concert at the Hotel Bond last winter; Randy Weston and Horace Parlan, pianists winning critical awards from "Jazz" and "Down Beat"; top-ranking saxophonist Booker Erwin; our Japanese protege, Sadao Watanabe; and the finest of Hartford jazzmen -- Norm Macklin, Joe Porcaro, Cliff Gunn, Jack O'Connor, Buddy Johnson, Lindsey Wallace.

The details: Boat leaves at noon...plenty of parking...dinner on board...setups available...$10 per person...door prizes...boat sails to Long Island Sound, returning to Hartford at 10 PM.

MESSAGE from Arthur Fine, president of the Society: "Our renown as a successful jazz society grows. We have much to look forward to in 1963-1964. Much of the success of the coming season depends on the financial returns from the cruise, which will enable us to conduct most enjoyable meetings and concerts. So, members, sell those cruise tickets. If every member sells four or five, we'll have a sellout."

CHAIRMEN of committees for 1963-1964, as appointed by the president are: Program -- Jerry Gordon; Publicity -- Dan Canter; Membership -- Elaine Shlomborg and Sammy Johnson; Music -- Cliff Gunn; Legal Advisor -- Danny Blume; Historian -- Geo. Malcolm-Smith.

NEWS OF YOUSE: Danny Blume and Joanne Grower, Society members, will be wed August 25... Lou and Jane Gleim expect their second little one late in December...Barbara Hurwit and Phyllis Gordon will be heard discussing the Society on the Pat Turner Show, Station WJNF on Tuesday, August 20...Al Lepak's big band an immense success at the Waterbury Jazz Festival...See you aboard the palatial Nelsco on September 8.
