SWINGER SUPPLEMENT

APRIL, 1979

Good sounds continue to abound at Ichabod's, 144 Albany Turnpike (Route 44), Canton, Conn. Excellent food, good drink and great jazz make Ichabod's one of the most satisfying experiences in the Greater Hartford area. Every Wednesday, Friday and Saturday night the long-running and very popular Trio Jazz continue to supply a menu guaranteed to keep your foot tapping. The Trio features the great Emery Smith on grand piano with Brad Ryan on drums and Earl Wormack on acoustic bass.

"Jazz In The Colonial Room" at the Bushnell Memorial Hall begins a fine series of concerts on Sunday, April 29th., at 7:30 P.M., featuring the Lloyd Gilliam Trio with Cliff Gunn and "Stix" Leonard. Also on the bill are the formidable team of the ever-popular Kitty Kathyrn, vocalist, and distinctive pianist, Emery Smith. For further information call 246-6807.

The Hartford unit of the American Cancer Society will present a benefit concert at the Bushnell Memorial Hall on Wednesday, May 16th., at 8:00 P.M. The ever-popular jazz guitarist, Charlie Byrd and his Trio, plus international jazz vocalists Jackie Paris and Anne Marie Moss and their Trio and the special added attraction of the new 12-piece Norman Gage Big Band will be featured. For further information please call the Bushnell Box Office.

Every Monday evening, Mort Fega presents "Jazz at the 880 Club". On April 30, the duo of Bob Brookmeyer and Jim Hall will take the stand....On May 14, look for the Roy Haynes Hip Ensemble....On May 28, one of Hartford's favorites, pianist and vocalist Boborough will appear....On June 11, the outstanding bassist, Ron Carter, and his Quartet, will be presented in a rare Hartford appearance. On alternate Monday nights, the new Norman Gage Big Band holds forth. The 880 Club is located on 880 Maple Avenue in Hartford. The music begins at 9:00 P.M., there is limited seating, so come early!

In the upstairs lounge of the Blacksmith Tavern on Main Street in Glastonbury, Lloyd Gilliam presents his special brand of solo piano Tuesdays through Thursdays. On Friday and Saturday evenings, bassist Cliff Gunn and drummer "Stix" Leonard are added to make a fine jazz trio. The music begins at 9:00 PM.

The remaining concert series of the Hartford Jazz Society promises to be very exciting. On Sunday, May 6, the great Heath Brothers Quintet will be presented. The new Norman Gage Big Band will do its thing on Sunday, June 3, showcasing for the first time the big, robust, swinging big-band sound. To round out the season with a bang, the HJS will present two of the greatest jazz guitarists ever to be featured in the Hartford area. Herb Ellis and Barney Kessel, with their Quartet, will appear Sunday, June 17. All Society concerts begin at 7:00 P.M., and held in the Opera Room of the Sheraton Tobacco Valley Inn, in Windsor, Conn.
